GREETINGS

Dear. Josh and Esther

I am enjoying the London life as a visitor; working on weekday about construction and walking round on holiday, walk along riverside of Thames, Piccadilly circus, Trafalger square, etc. etc.

On Sunday, people in this lab. took me for sight ^{trip} ~~see~~ to Woburn Abbey, and enjoyed to see Duke's house or collection of steam-engines.

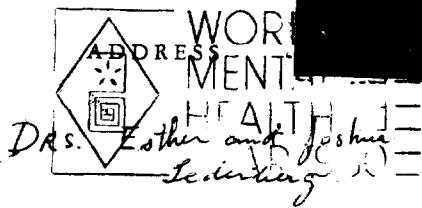

The old steam-engines are still working, with big noise, black smoke, producing terrific amount of steam!

I hope everything going well at Stanford.

Woburn Abbey from the West.
(Aerofilms Ltd.) with regards.
